Safety First Ensures a Fun Shoot for All!

Tri-River Area invitational shoots are strictly for members who have demonstrated a clear understanding of firearms safety. Entry-level shooting sports members should not feel pressured to shoot, and any member who does not fully understand or cannot adhere to the following rules should not compete in Tri-River Area invitational shoots:

1. Muzzles of firearms, whether loaded or not – and archers' arrows – must NEVER be pointed at any person or in any direction that may cause a ricochet; and must NEVER be brandished (waved in any direction with the muzzle pointed in any direction other than down-range);
2. Participants must understand when it is appropriate to have "action open;"
3. Fingers must ALWAYS remain OFF triggers unless preparing to shoot at a target;
4. Participants must know, understand and follow all range commands given;
5. Participants must understand target shooting sequence.

These basic safety rules are in place to ensure the safety of everyone participating in Tri-River Area invitational shoots – so, if your member isn't quite yet sure of how to handle firearms safely, please opt out of participating in invitational shoots until you are sure your shooter is a safe shooter. Remember - a safe shoot is a fun shoot!
